

Lonaard Summer School: Education, Training, Focus Programmes & a Step for the Future Higher Education in London or the UK

---

About Lonaard Summer School:

Summer school in London is an intensive programme held for a weekly time slot that aim to help ambitious students from the Middle East, the Gulf, and North African Universities get a glimpse of academic life in Western Universities. It is a first step towards looking for the right university to apply for and get

Table 1: Periods throughout the year containing the different programme packages

Period	February (7-14)	25 June – 02 July	July (2-11)	July (12-20)	September (6-13)
Programme	(London History Tour 1) (only or )+  (Art: Museum Tour 1) or (Graphic Design: Living London 1)	(London History Tour 1) + (Graphic Design: Living London 2)  (Urbanism in London1) or (London Fashion and the World of Interior 1)	(London History Tour 2) + (Art Society & Culture1) or (Urbanism in London 2)	(London History Tour 3) + (Art Society & Culture2) or (Fashion across the Ages - Contemporary London)	(London History Tour 4) + (Art: Museum Tour 2) or (Graphic Design: Living London 3)  (London Fashion and the World of Interior 2)

Participants can choose one or two packages from each time period to enrol into. Details of each programme is explained as follows (which includes academic lectures, tutorial, guidance and orientation for future studies, and leisure focussed activities):

Note: Depending on the number of attendants and the demand, the above programmes may be re-shuffled per period.

Programme: London History Tour

London History Tour 1, 2, 3, 4
Description	Activities per day	Remarks
This is a living walk through historic London. It aims to introduce candidates to key monuments across various historic eras of all building types, these include Big Ben and Westminster Abbey, Fleet Street and St Paul's Cathedral, Covent Gardens, Mayfair, Bloomsbury, Greenwich, Bankside and Southwark, and Central Parks. This programme includes a visit to famous Madame Tussauds Museum. This programme interest those concerned to learn about history of Art and Architecture in Medieval Europe.	Day 1 Introductory lecture - London Walk (introducing Central London Monuments – open air walking history lecture)	Day tour will end in one of central London popular restaurants in Leicester Square or Covent Gardens
	Day 2 River cruise from Greenwich to Embankment – starting from Greenwich Planetarium and famous GMT time line, including Gothic architecture ending in modern London.	Identifying key skyline monuments along the River Thames
	Day 3 Walk in Covent Gardens, Fleet Street or Central Parks	Depending on which tour (1, 2, or 3) – details onsite
	Day 4 Historic walk through key London architectural Landmarks
	Day 5 Attending a historic debate in the House of Commons (this may vary as it has to be a Wednesday)	Those taking another programme from this time period will not attend activities from day 5 - 7
	Day 6 A visit to historic London – Old Street, Baker Street and famous Wax Museum and the Planetarium ending in London Eye (Has to be booked in advance)
	Day 7 A day in the British Museum – Egyptian and European art

Note: the above programme will be preceded and followed by additional educational and recreational activities to be announced and scheduled prior to the event. Therefore the total number of days will be 10-12 subject to accommodation reservation and confirmation by candidates.

Programme: Art: Museum Tour

Art: Museum Tour 1 & 2
Description	Activity per day	Remarks
This session is aimed for those interested in art, history of art and museum design and art-related activities, intended to bring to candidates up to date tour experience in major museums in London.	Day 1 Introductory session: about London museums and art galleries – working out groups and tours	Those taking the London Tour, will not attend days 1-4 from this programme
	Day 2 A day in the national portrait gallery 1 – London
	Day 3 Understanding art – selective tour followed by gathering in Central square
	Day 4 A tour in design museum – walk on the bank side and the Mall
	Day 5 A tour in Albert museum – followed by a Hyde park afternoon
	Day 6 A day in the national portrait gallery 2
	Day 7 Tour to Madame tussaud, London Planetarium and London Eye

Note: the above programme will be preceded and followed by additional educational and recreational activities to be announced and scheduled prior to the event. Therefore the total number of days will be 10-12 subject to accommodation reservation and confirmation by candidates.

Programme: Urbanism in London

Urbanism in London 1 & 2
Description	Activity per day	Remarks
This short course concerns architects and students of architecture mainly, but is also directed to those interested in archaeology, antiquity, students of urban morphology, as well as scholars of urban and spatial form. It involves studies, tours, educational and recreational activities and walks in London. It leads to other short courses.	Day 1 Introductory session – understanding the morphology of urban space	Those taking the London Tour, will not attend days 1-4 from this programme
	Day 2 A walk in ancient London – historic walk downtown
	Day 3 Central space and the city centre – the concept of the moving city
	Day 4 Cosmopolitan cities and the use of pedestrian zones versus the limitation of car access
	Day 5 Historic London walk – South East tour	Walks will include stopping at key landmarks
	Day 6 Green spaces in urban settings – a tour in central parks and High street
	Day 7 A walk from central London through bank sides – ending in Southbank

Note: the above programme will be preceded and followed by additional educational and recreational activities to be announced and scheduled prior to the event. Therefore the total number of days will be 10-12 subject to accommodation reservation and confirmation by candidates.

Programme: Graphic Design – Living London

Graphic Design – Living London 1, 2 & 3
Description	Activity per day	Remarks
This short course introduces up to date graphic art and design from one of the most important cities of the world. It concerns artist, graphic designers, digital arts, and moving images and design.	Day 1 Introduction to the course – objectives, scope and schedule – afternoon programme	Those taking the London Tour, will miss days 1-3 from this programme
	Day 2 A visit to School of the Arts
	Day 3 Lecture and tour – art and design in London metropolitan
	Day 4 The city and moving images – tour and lecture	subject to amendment depending on availability of exhibitions, academies, and other venues at time of programme
	Day 5 Graphic arts – School of the arts
	Day 6 Modern design and graphic design – tour and vision	Visit to school of the arts may vary subject to prior arrangement
	Day 7 School of the arts – tour - lecture

Note: the above programme will be preceded and followed by additional educational and recreational activities to be announced and scheduled prior to the event. Therefore the total number of days will be 10-12 subject to accommodation reservation and confirmation by candidates.

Programme: London Fashion and the World of Interior

London Fashion and the World of Interior 1 & 2
Description	Activity per day		Remarks
This course includes two programmes combined and will be followed by other programmes that concentrate on each subject by its own. It is an introduction to tour some of world renowned fashion houses, academies and exhibitions. It is also about interior design in world most important commercial hubs in London. The course is professional, educational and comprises most up to date experience.	Day 1	Introduction – fashion design and the city of London – introducing place and event	Those taking the London
	Day 2	Exhibition visit – world fashion	Tour, will miss days 1-3 from this programme
	Day 3	Commercial interior – tour
	Day 4	Residential and commercial interior – academy visit	subject to amendment depending on availability of exhibitions, academies, and other venues at time of programme
	Day 5	School visit – interior designs
	Day 6	Exhibition visit
	Day 7	City centre walk and talk – learning experience

Note: the above programme will be preceded and followed by additional educational and recreational activities to be announced and scheduled prior to the event. Therefore the total number of days will be 10-12 subject to accommodation reservation and confirmation by candidates.

Programme: Art: Society & Culture

Art: Society and Culture 1 & 2
Description	Activity per day	Remarks
This art tour in the heart of London where most art galleries, antique shops, museums and exhibitions are located will present a unique opportunity for attendees to experience art in within the social and cultural context. Course will focus on social dimension in art, and will highlight other related arts including theatre and cinema.	Day 1 Introduction – art a social and cultural tour around West Europe	Those taking the London Tour, will miss days 1-3 from this programme
	Day 2 Art and society – a visit to Design Museum
	Day 3 Art tour across time
	Day 4 Art tour in National Portrait Gallery - 1	subject to amendment depending on availability of exhibitions, academies, and other venues at time of programme
	Day 5 Tour in Contemporary Art Gallery
	Day 6 Art tour in National Portrait Gallery - 2
	Day 7 A visit to art exhibition - afternoon talk

Note: the above programme will be preceded and followed by additional educational and recreational activities to be announced and scheduled prior to the event. Therefore the total number of days will be 10-12 subject to accommodation reservation and confirmation by candidates.

Programme: Fashion Across the Ages - Contemporary London

Fashion Across the Ages - Contemporary London
Description	Activity per day	Remarks
This is a special course about Fashion design. To enrol in this course, early preparation need to be made due to its nature, venues and schedule. The course is about a unique access to fashion design in top-notch companies, firms and exhibitions.	Day 1 Fashion – a historic tour	Those taking the London Tour, will miss days 1-3 from this programme
	Day 2 London school of the arts
	Day 3 Fashion design – from theory to practice
	Day 4 Tour in fashion design – London	subject to amendment depending on availability of exhibitions, academies, and other venues at time of programme
	Day 5 Contemporary fashion design
	Day 6 Medieval fashion – exhibition tour
	Day 7 Fashion cycle – modern London designs tour

Note: the above programme will be preceded and followed by additional educational and recreational activities to be announced and scheduled prior to the event. Therefore the total number of days will be 10-12 subject to accommodation reservation and confirmation by candidates.

How to book?

Initial correspondence should be made via e-mail to summerschool@lonaard.com stating in the subject (summer school – the month (period)– main programme required) for example: (summer school – July (02-11) – Graphic Design). Alternatively, you may call or send fax us on 0044 207 231 910 between 10:00 AM – 2:30 PM (Monday to Thursday) or you may email us outside these hours.

ACCOMMODATION

Accommodation will be provided in The University of London Accommodation services. Those intending to participate have to inform us as early as possible to ensure finding accommodation to cover the period of the programme (or more if they wish to stay few days more). A deposit of the total amount for accommodation has to be paid in advance to secure the booking with the University Accommodation (it is non-refundable by the University Accommodation)

There are number of halls available to book through us. Single rooms and en-suits (for two or more candidates to share) will be booked in good time in advance (rates vary from 60, 80, 100 GBP pp-per night – subject to time of the year and availability as fares may vary). These Halls are part of the University of London and based in the Bloomsbury area of the city. The British Museum is just a 2-minute walk away, and Tottenham Court Road tube station is only half a mile away. The shopping district of Oxford Street is within a 10-minute walk of College Hall and features a wide variety of designer shops, restaurants and bars. The West End, Covent Garden and Piccadilly Circus can all be reached within a 20-minute walk or 15-minute tube journey. Free wired internet is provided in each room at College Hall, as well as a work desk and wardrobe. Laundry facilities are provided (extra charge), and there are small tea pantries on each floor which contain a sink, microwave and refrigerator. Guests can enjoy a complimentary buffet-style breakfast served daily at College Hall.

Room type and facilities

Double bed, en-suite bathroom

24/7 Reception

Linen and towels

Free wired Internet access

Laundrette

Double bed, en-suite bathroom

24/7 Reception

Linen and towels

Free wired Internet access

Laundrette

Lonaard Summer School: Education, Training, Focus Programmes & a Step for the Future Higher Education in London or the UK

---

